

Dasa Chadwick – Senior Facilitator & Consultant

Location: Calgary

Dasa Chadwick is a learning and human resources professional with over 15 years of experience in management and adult education roles. She has worked in both the public and private sectors, in industries such as oil and gas, telecommunications, and hospitality where she has designed and delivered a variety of leadership development and soft skills programs.

Dasa holds a Master of Arts in Leadership and Training from Royal Roads University, and received a Certificate in Adult Education from St. Francis Xavier University. A dynamic and engaging speaker, Dasa strives to make every session highly relevant and enjoyable.

Dasa's work has included projects such as the creation and delivery of leadership programs, guiding teams in the development of performance objectives, working on employee engagement initiatives, and designing a variety of unique teambuilding workshops. In addition to Dasa's teaching and consulting work, she has been a frequent conference presenter on topics such as generational differences and leadership ethics.

Areas of Facilitation Expertise

- Frontline supervision and leadership
- Communication Skills
- Team Development
- Performance management
- Giving and receiving feedback
- Difficult conversations
- Behavioural interviewing
- Customer service
- Generational differences

Contact us today to meet Dasa or any of our other senior facilitators.